

INVITATION

Thursday November 29, 2018, 11.00 AM

BEVERLY PEPPER TRA TODI E IL MONDO

Associazione Stampa Estera (Foreign Press Association), Sala della Biblioteca
Via dell'Umiltà, 83/C – Roma

Welcome:

Katiuscia Marini, President of Regione Umbria
Antonino Ruggiano, Mayor of Todi

Moderated by:

Dennis Redmont in dialogue with Marco Tonelli, art critic

With the participation of the cultural office of the U.S. Embassy to Italy

On Thursday November 29, Beverly Pepper (New York, b. 1922) invites you to attend a Press Conference at the Foreign Press Association in Rome starting at 11.00 AM, which will outline the schedule of activities the city of Todi will dedicate to the American sculptor. The year-long celebrations will honor the Beverly's many years of activity in Todi, chosen as the ideal place to live and create her artworks, famous around the world.

Starting December 2018, the three main events in Todi will be: a big monographic exhibit open from December 8 until May 5, 2019; in April 2019 a re-edition of the famous Todi Columns and on September 15, 2019 the inauguration of Beverly Pepper's sculpture park, the first monothematic park of contemporary sculpture in Umbria and the artist's first in the world.
